PART I

ANCESTORS OF SAMUEL AND ELNORA PORTER

In the center of this book is a chart listing all of the known ancestors of Samuel and Elnora (Rudolph) Porter. Part I of the story of these ancestors so far as is known to the writer. This story is not complete by any means and someone with the time and the spirit may uncover additional information.

THE
ANCESTORS

Mr. E. W. Porter, the writer's Uncle, wrote a story of the Porter family including a great deal of information about the brothers and sisters of Samuel and some of their lives. He also described at length the Maryland and West Virginia homes of the Porters and in greater detail the farm and its life in Michigan. Strangely enough, he did not give any background of Elnora Eliza Rudolph. He, with Edward, Oliver and Roswell were so close in age and were pioneers in the west, he covered their lives quite fully as well as pioneer life in the west. The writer, several years ago had Uncle E. W.'s book typed and sent copies to many of Samuel's grandchildren. A great deal of the information below is taken from this booklet.

Frank Porter, son of our Samuel's cousin, William, wrote a book, "Historical Sketches of Some Porters", which gives a great deal of information about our ancestral Porters and other Porter relatives in Maryland. Uncle E. W. collaborated with Frank before he wrote his booklet about the Porters but probably had never seen Frank's book which is now in the possession of Edna Porter Beamer granddaughter of Aden Clary Porter. Some of the information herein comes from Frank's book.

Frank Porter, son of our Samuel's cousin, William, wrote a book, "Historical Sketches of some Porters", which gives a great deal of information about our ancestors. Porter and other Porter relatives in Maryland. Uncle Ellsworth collaborated with Frank before he wrote his booklet about the Porters but probably had never seen Frank's book which is now in the possession of Edna Porter Bessner granddaughter of Allen. Clara Porter, Samuel's brother and who lives in Blissfield, Michigan. Some of the information herein comes from Frank's book. He lived his life in Maryland near Cumberland.

for his outspoken opposition to the government. Tradition also says that two brothers came with him but that they separated, one going to New England and one to New Orleans.

The Jacobites were the Catholic party in England and Maryland was formed as a Catholic colony. It is believed that all of the early Porters were Catholics and that the change to Protestant by many came with the wave of Methodism which swept the country in the early part of the 19th century. Frank Porter says that his grandfather Michael Porter, "Squire Mike" (brother to Samuel's father, John of S) attended St. Patricks Church on Mt. Savage until middle life. About 1840, he became a Protestant along with his brother John, our ancestor, and many other Porters.

Little is known of John Porter, the emigrant. It is believed that he lived in Carrol County, Maryland, and that his children were born in Carrolton. Tradition gives him seven children, six sons and one daughter. Frank names four sons, Moses, Gabriel, Michael and John who was our ancestor.

This John was born in Carrolton, Maryland in 1737. He married Nancy McKenzie and settled near Wellersburg, Bedford County, Pennsylvania, just after he and his brother Moses helped with the survey of the Mason-Dixon line shortly after 1763. He and his brother served in the Revolutionary war in Capt. Paxton's Bedford County Militia, (Penna. Archives, 5th series Vol. V, Page 116). Several of his descendants have used his name in becomming members of the Sons or The Daughters of the American Revolution, as follows:

D. A. R. Mable Porter Mason, No. 384096.
S. A. R. Ellsworth W. Porter. No. 53424.
S. A. R. Carl Porter. No. 58138.
S. A. R. Samuel D. Porter. No. 72769.

After the War, John was commissioned by the government to survey lots for soldiers near Cumberland, Maryland and as compensation was awarded a large tract about six miles west of Cumberland on Mount Savage near what is now Eckart Mines. The original Porter land was known as Rose Meadows because of the profusion of wild roses which grew in the meadows. John built a substantial house on a south slope which remained in the family for several generations. There is no trace of the house today. One of the Porters made a painting of this house and the writer has a picture of this painting. John's youngest son John was known as "Squire Jack". He lived in the house after his father. His picture hangs in the Old Art Gallery in Washington, D. C., a painting "American Independence" by Frank B. Mayer. The writer has a post card reproduction thereof.

The Porter Cemetary is located a short distance north of the site of the house, and it is in that cemetery where John is buried. The writer visited this cemetery in 1950. John's tombstone is a rough stone slab inscribed "I. P. 1737 - 1810." It is additionally identified by a D. A. R. embleen.

In Loudermilk's "History of Cumberland" page 265, it is stated that in 1787, Henry, Moses and John Porter were located on lands west of Fort Cumberland; also Samuel, Josiah, Gabriel and Moses Porter and Daniel McKenzie. Schraff's "History of Western Maryland", page 1504, says that John Porter settled between Cumberland and Frostburg in 1782, on a farm known as "Rose Meadows". John's children were:

Michael Porter 1768 -
Samuel Porter 1770 -
Thomas Porter 1772 -
Gabriel McKenzie Porter 1776-1842
Henry Porter 1778 -
Moses Porter 1781 - 1872
John Porter (Squire Jack) 1783 - 1863
Nellie Porter 1785 -

Samuel Porter, our ancestor, was born in Carrol County, Maryland between 1765 and 1770. He was raised at Rose Meadows where he married about 1789 a Miss Anderson, the daughter of a neighbor, William Anderson, whose nearby estate was known as "Play Place". Little is known of Samuel's life, not even the date nor place of his death. His children were:

John Porter 1791 - 1862

Michael Porter (Squire Mike) 1792 - 1877

William Porter 1794 -

Benjamin Porter

Elizabeth Porter

Two other daughters

John Porter was our ancestor and was known as John of S (Samuel) to distinguish him from the many other Johns in this region of Maryland. John was born Sept. 1 1791 at Rose Meadows. He married, in 1816, Hannah Combs, daughter of Cudbreth Combs who lived near Rose Meadows. She was born June 1 1798. In 1841, he purchased a farm on 214 acres from William Chisholm near Eglon, Preston County, West Virginia. He moved there April 20 of the same year. George Clice, his brother Michael's son-in-law was employed to move him the 80 miles, the journey taking five days.

John Porter was a seargeant in the War of 1812 enlisting Aug. 11, 1814 in Capt. McLaughlin's Company, Col. Ragoon's Regiment. He was discharged Oct. 13, 1814 (Loudermilk).

His wife, Hannah, died Feb. 22, 1844 after many years of partial paralysis. She is reported to be buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery near Aurora but the writer was unable to find any tombstone for her in 1950. John with his youngest daughter, Martha Ellen, lived with his son, Samuel, until his death Feb. 17, 1862. He is buried in Texas Cemetery near Horse-shoe Run postoffice. The writer, in 1950, saw what is believed to be his tombstone. It is a rough slab marked "J P".

The writer visited the Preston County courthouse at Kingwood in 1950 to search for records of Porters and others only to find that all records had been lost in a fire set by an incendiary.

John and Hannah's children are listed below with marriages and a brief statement of their lives. This information is given since several of these children migrated to Michigan about the time of the Civil War.

Eliza Porter. 1817 - 1897, married John Hardin. They lived in Maryland and later moved to Washington County, Pa.

William Thomas Porter. 1820 - 1858, married Susan Sell and they lived near Texas in Preston County.

Samuel Porter, 1822 - 1895, our ancestor.

Cudbreth Porter, died about 1830

John Meyers Lawrence Porter, 1830 - 1901. He married Emily Domire and they came to Michigan in 1870. Edna Porter Beamer has a diary which he kept for many years.

Maria Porter. 1833 - 1921. She married Stephen Harsh and they lived near Egdon in Preston County.

Aden Clary Porter. 1835 - 1915. He married Verlinda (Aunt Linny) Wotring, sister to John Levi Wotring (see later under Mary Elizabeth Porter). They came to Michigan with Samuel Porter in 1864.

Martha Ellen Porter. 1837 - 1879. She married John Peter Heckert and they came to Michigan with Samuel Porter in 1864.

Other Porters who migrated to Michigan during or right after the Civil War are John Franklin Porter, son of William Thomas married Harriett Wiles. They came to Michigan in the 1870's.

James Henry Porter, another son of William Thomas, married Olive Shafer and came to Michigan in 1876.

Samuel Sylvester Porter, another son, married Harriett Wotring, sister to Verlinda and John Levi. They came about 1875.

Others who came to Michigan from Preston County were James and Elizabeth (Heckert) Robertson who came before the War, John and Lydia (Rudolph) Staup, George F. and Saloma (Rudolph) Harsh, Benjamin Frank and Sarah (Rudolph) Wolford, George Washington and Betty (Coffman) Rudolph.

The foregoing gives the story of Samuel Porter's ancestry with some additional information regarding his brothers and sisters and others who made up the Porter relatives near Blissfield. The story of Elnora Rudolph's ancestors follows.

John Peter Heckert came from Hagerstown Maryland to Preston Co., W. Va. in 1790. At this time the state was a part of Virginia. There is a little uncertainty as to his exact name. Some references refer to George Peter Heckert but Karl Gower, Washington, D. C., who is writing a genealogy of the Heckert Family believes that John Peter is correct. Morton's History, Vol. II, p 882 says that Peter Heckert owned property in 1803. John Peter married Annamira Rinehart, daughter of Thomas Rinehart and his first wife who may have been the daughter of Christian Nines. Part of this record is in Morton's "History of Preston County," pages 381, 440, 448, 462, and 479. John Peter and Annamira lived in Preston County. Their children are believed to be as follows:

Solomon Heckert, 1801 - 1875. He came to Michigan.

John George Heckert, 1803 - 1886. He married 1st Mary Bishop, sec. Hannah Wagner and lastly Lucy Hile. They came to Michigan. Anna Maria Heckert, 1807-1880. She is our ancestor and came to Michigan in her later years.

Elizabeth M. Heckert, 1815 - 1882. She married James Robertson and they came to Michigan before the Civil War.

John Peter Heckert, 1812 - 1885. He married Elizabeth Sell.

Savilla Heckert married Dan Wiles

Sarah Heckert married Henry Waltz

John W. Heckert

Daniel Heckert

Rebecca Heckert, married Rev. John Sonendecker
There were probably three other children.

Anna Maria Rudolph was born Feb 8 1807. She married John Rudolph, son of Peter Rudolph and Mary Nester. Little is known of these parents except that Peter died of a heart attack while fighting a forest fire. Peter Rudolph is reported to have come from Baltimore. He settled on a farm near Eglon known as the Warner or Schweitzer farm, Part of this information is from Emra Fike, grandson of John and Ann Maria and part from Morton's history. Anna Maria came to Michigan, probably after John's death and is buried in Zion Cemetery near Blissfield. Their children were all girls but one:

Elnora Rudolph, our ancestor. 1828-1909.

Ann Saloma Rudolph, 1830 - 1919, married George F. Harsh (1828 - 1870). They came to Michigan and lived in the southern part of Ogden Township.

Lydia E. Rudolph, 1837 - 1924. She married John Staup (1827 - 1899). They came to Michigan where their farm abutted that of our Samuel Porter.

Rebecca Rudolph, 1841 - 1916. She married Aaron Fike (1837 - 1934). They lived in Preston County-

Sophia P. Rudolph, 1843 - 1903. She married Moses Fike (1837 - 1934) and they lived in Preston County.

John George Washington Rudolph, 1852 - 1889).

He married Betty Coffman (1852 - 1920) and they came to Michigan.

Lucinda Rudolph.

Savilla Rudolph.

Sarah Rudolph married Benjamin Frank Wolford and they came to Michigan.

This ends the account of the ancestors of Samuel and Elnora Porter. In the pages which follow are given their descendants. The writer has been accumulating this material over a period of many years. Early in 1957, Karl Gower wrote to me that he was writing a genealogy of the Heckert Family. He asked me to supply him with the descendants for Elnora Rudolph. He asked Lena Heckert Beal, of Blissfield, to supply the same information for the descendants of Martha Porter and John Peter Heckert. Martha was Samuel's sister. I immediately set about to bring my information up to date. The success of my inquiries of these descendants is indicated by the completeness of the records contained in the pages which follow.

To all of you who helped me to make this record as complete as it is I wish to extend my thanks. Especially do I wish to thank Gaylord Wotring who furnished me the complete record of the Wotring family.

I am also working on a genealogy of the Porter Family starting with John the emmigrant and including all the Porters I can find. This will be a mountainous task but I hope to enlist some support from Maryland where so many of the Porters live who came before Samuel's father John of S who moved to West Virginia. If I can retire in a few years, perhaps I can do some more work on it.

PART II

THE DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL PORTER AND ELNORA ELIZA RUDOLPH

SAMUEL PORTER, son of John Porter and Hannah Combs, was born July 6, 1822 in Allegany County, Maryland. In 1841 he removed with his father's family to Preston County, West Virginia (then Virginia). Here he married Elnora Eliza Rudolph on Dec. 11, 1845. She is the daughter of John Rudolph and Anna Maria Heckert and was born Sept. 14, 1828 near Aurora, West Virginia, baptized October 12, 1828 (Aurora Records)

They lived on a farm two miles southeast of Horse-shoe Run P. O. in Preston County where most of their children were born. On September 4, 1864, after selling his farm for $1,500, they, with several brothers and sisters and their families, 82 persons in all, came to Blissfield in one trainload. Samuel's family settled on an uncleared farm of about 70 acres in Ogden Township which he had purchased for $1,069. This is the old homestead and is still in the family. Samuel died Sept. 30, 1895 and Elnora on April 17, 1909 and both are buried in Zion Cemetery.
